

The Global Arctic Awards

A competition which strives to show the splendor of the Arctic, offering a stunning selection of images which successfully pay homage to a variety of landscapes and wildlife from the frozen wastelands of the extreme North

A Gallery of the Spectacular Winners of the Third Edition

"Conquering the cold heart of Arctic is a challenge, but there is nothing impossible for those truly in love with the North".

The Global Arctic Awards is an international photography competition that is already for the third year collecting the best Arctic and North images all over the world. In 2014 "Antarctic" section was also added to Global Arctic Awards.

Photographers from 30 countries have taken part in Global Arctic Awards 2014. The project was fulfilled with the support of the government of the Yamal-Nenets Autonomous region and the Russian Geographic Society.

The hard task was put to 7 international jury members (Sergey Anisimov, Sergey Lidov, Alessandra Meniconzi, Roy Mangersnes, Bryan Alexander, Sergey Gorshkov, Bo Cederwall). But the choice has been done, the winners have been announced and can now be seen on the competition web site: <http://arcticawards.ru/en/winners2014>

The contest winners have been awarded the medals of international photography associations FIAP, PSA and UPI, as well as with prizes and gifts from Global Arctic Awards competition partners.

For the third year in a row Norwegian photographers have taken the "Arctic Photographer of the Year" title. This year it has gone to Audun Rikardsen.

During last two years the Global Arctic Awards project was presented in 15 different cities with 15 exhibitions all over Russia and Europe.

The Global Arctic Awards organizers contest express their sincere gratitude to the partners and sponsors, whose support has played a very important role.
